How are you “wired?” What “makes you tick?” What are you passionate and excited about? In addition to spiritual gifts, God has “wired” you to have passion about some things in life that motivate and stimulate and challenge you. Answer the following to get a better understanding of this in your life.

1. If I could snap my fingers and do some great thing for God and know I couldn't fail, I would:
2. At the end of my life, I want to be able to look back and know that I made a difference by doing something about:
3. If someone were to mention my name to a group of friends, they would say I am really interested in or passionate about:
4. I would keep talking about late into the night about:
5. The best thing I can think of to do for others is:
6. The people group I would like to help the most are (circle all that apply):

8. List below the 5 most positive experiences you've had in your life and briefly describe what you did and why it was meaningful to you. They may have been experiences at home, work school, or anywhere. It may be a clock you fixed, a work of art, marriage/children, building a house, getting "attaboys" from someone you respected, or a significant ministry experience like leading someone to Christ.

4.

5.

Now, read through your list and try to find underlying, unifying themes. Write that below:

5. This is your anointing. Pulling together the data you have just given, including underlying themes, make a brief anointing statement in few words. Begin with "I sense I have an anointing for ...". It should include an area of ministry and a people group.

"I see that I have an anointing for" —
